

Caroline Durieux, lithographs of the thirties and forties

A collection of Durieux's finest lithographs. Durieux's lithographs are housed in the Museum of Modern Art (NYC), The Philadelphia Museum of Fine Art, the Historic New Orleans Collection, the Library of Congress, and Bibliothèque Nationale in Paris. Includes 58 lithographs organized into 3 sections: Latin America, New Orleans, and The Tragic Spirit. There are layers and layers of meaning under the surface. The style is simple and ingenuous... But it is far from being artless: on the contrary, it is mature and sophisticated, the product of highly conscious art, a style that is original and her own...(Carl Zigrosser, Philadelphia Museum of Fine Arts).
