

In That Sweet Country: Uncollected Writings of Harry Middleton

A moving collection of fishing stories by one of Americas legendary outdoor writers. Throughout his career, Harry Middleton contributed hundreds of stories, essays, and book reviews to some of the most respected periodicals, including the New York Times, Sports Illustrated, Grays Sporting Journal, Field & Stream, Country Journal, Smithsonian, and Sierra, among others. When he died in 1993, Middleton left behind a legacy rich with mountain streams, wild trout, and fishermens dreams. In That Sweet Country is a fresh, exhilarating collection of a renowned fishing writers previously published works. A recognized name in outdoor writing, Middleton brings us inspiring selections such as An Anglers Lament from Southern Living (1987), Spring on the Miramichi from The Flyfisher (1991), A Haunting Obsession with Brown Trout from the New York Times (1992), and many more. Listeners who have loved Middletons work will cherish this compilation, while novice fishermen will gain a view of the world as Middleton saw it: There are so few left, so few who believe the earth is enough.
