

Life Before Death

Fr. Paul Trinchar felt himself a misfit. While he was beloved by all who knew him and on his way straight up in his first assignment, upon return to his hometown the clergy called him crazy. With his pre-Vatican II convictions and his post-Vatican II liturgy, he was indeed conflicted. He wondered: Is it possible to keep my pre-Vatican II faith and accept the new mass liturgy in place of the Divine Liturgy of Holy Mass? Father Trinchar amusingly but significantly reminisces about his life as a Holy Ordered Orthodox Catholic Priest who led purely human community prayers until his conversion. Despite his betrayal of his God-given Holy Orders, God patiently worked on him until he returned to Orthodox Catholicism: to be as he was Holy Ordered to be - the agent and receiver of Life Before Death.
