

The Funambulist Pamphlets: Vol. 01 Spinoza (Volume 1)

The blog The Funambulist: Architectural Narratives, a daily architectural platform written and edited by Leopold Lambert, finds its name in the consideration for architectures representative medium, the line, and its philosophical and political power when it materializes and subjectivizes bodies. If the white page represents a given milieu a desert for example and one comes to trace a line on it, (s)he will virtually split this same milieu into two distinct impermeable parts through its embodiment, the wall. The Funambulist, also known as a tightrope walker, is the character who, somehow, subverts this power by walking on the line. The Funambulist Pamphlets is a series of small books archiving articles published on The Funambulist, collected according to specific themes. These volumes propose a different articulation of texts than the usual chronological one. The twelve first volumes are respectively dedicated to Spinoza, Foucault, Deleuze, Legal Theory, Occupy Wall Street, Palestine, Cruel Designs, Arakawa + Madeline Gins, Science Fiction, Literature, Cinema and Weaponized Architecture. As new articles are published on The Funambulist, more volumes will be published to continue the series. Volume 01_Spinoza compiles blog posts by Leopold Lambert on: The Marxian Reading of Capitalism Through a Spinozist Conceptology Spinozist Determinism, or How Caesar Could Not Have Not Crossed the Rubicon Power (Potentia) vs. Power (Potestas): The Story of a Joyful Typhoon The World of Affects, or Why Adam Got Poisoned by the Apple The Spinozist Scream: What Can a Body Do? Applied Spinozism: The Body in Kurosawas Cinema Applied Spinozism: Architectures of the Sky vs. Architectures of the Earth Architectures of Joy: A Spinozist Reading of Parent+Virilio & Arakawa+Ginss Architecture Architecture of the Conatus: Tentative Constructing Towards a Holding
